About the course

MEROS INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE

Course Length	120 hours of study, divided into 16 clearly defined sections. Each section focuses on a vital area of practice, giving you the language tools to perform effectively at work.
Course Level	The entry level for the course is set at an upper-intermediate and advanced level (B2-C1) in the Common European Framework). At this level, you can express yourself in most interactions at work and outside. However, you make mistakes, have problems expressing complex ideas accurately and dealing with unpredictable communicative situations.
Inputs	During the course you watch animated videos, listen to conversations, read medical texts, analyse charts and graphs, look at work-related photographs and images, and study vocabulary, grammar and pronunciation focus points.
Exercises	You take a wide range of exercises to learn the target language, including tasks where you record and listen to yourself in conversation with patients and colleagues.
Progress Assessment	You can track your results and the time you spend online. At the end of every unit, you take a progress assessment so you can see what you have learnt.
Course Accreditation	The course is accredited and certificated by the CPD Standards Office in the UK, professional qualifications are recognised worldwide.
End of Course CPD Certificate	On successful completion, students receive 80 CPD points and a CPD-stamped certificate with details of the course level and content.
Lead Writer	Virginia Allum is a widely published Medical English writer, speaker and trainer, having written for doctors, nurses and health care assistants and carers, as well as test questions and preparation materials for the Occupational English Test.
